

Poultry Building Features And Specs

Sentinel poultry buildings feature high-quality 29-gauge galvanized coated steel roof panels for long-lasting durability in all climates

Purlins are engineered to support all attached equipment

Evaporative cooling chamber "doghouses" are designed to exact specifications, and are popular options for most poultry operations

20% roof slope

Durable access doors in locations of your choosing

Sturdy 8' x 8' framing for swinging door is standard in all Sentinel poultry buildings

29-gauge galvanized coated steel endwall and sidewall panels are standard on all poultry buildings, with optional paint available in a wide variety of colors

Access doors are included in all evaporative cooling chamber designs

Sentinel poultry buildings come in your choice of industry-standard widths of 10m, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16m with customized dimensions available

Heavy-duty framing to support evaporate cooling system (supplied by others)

"Z" Purlins assist in minimizing dust collection and simplifies the interior cleaning process

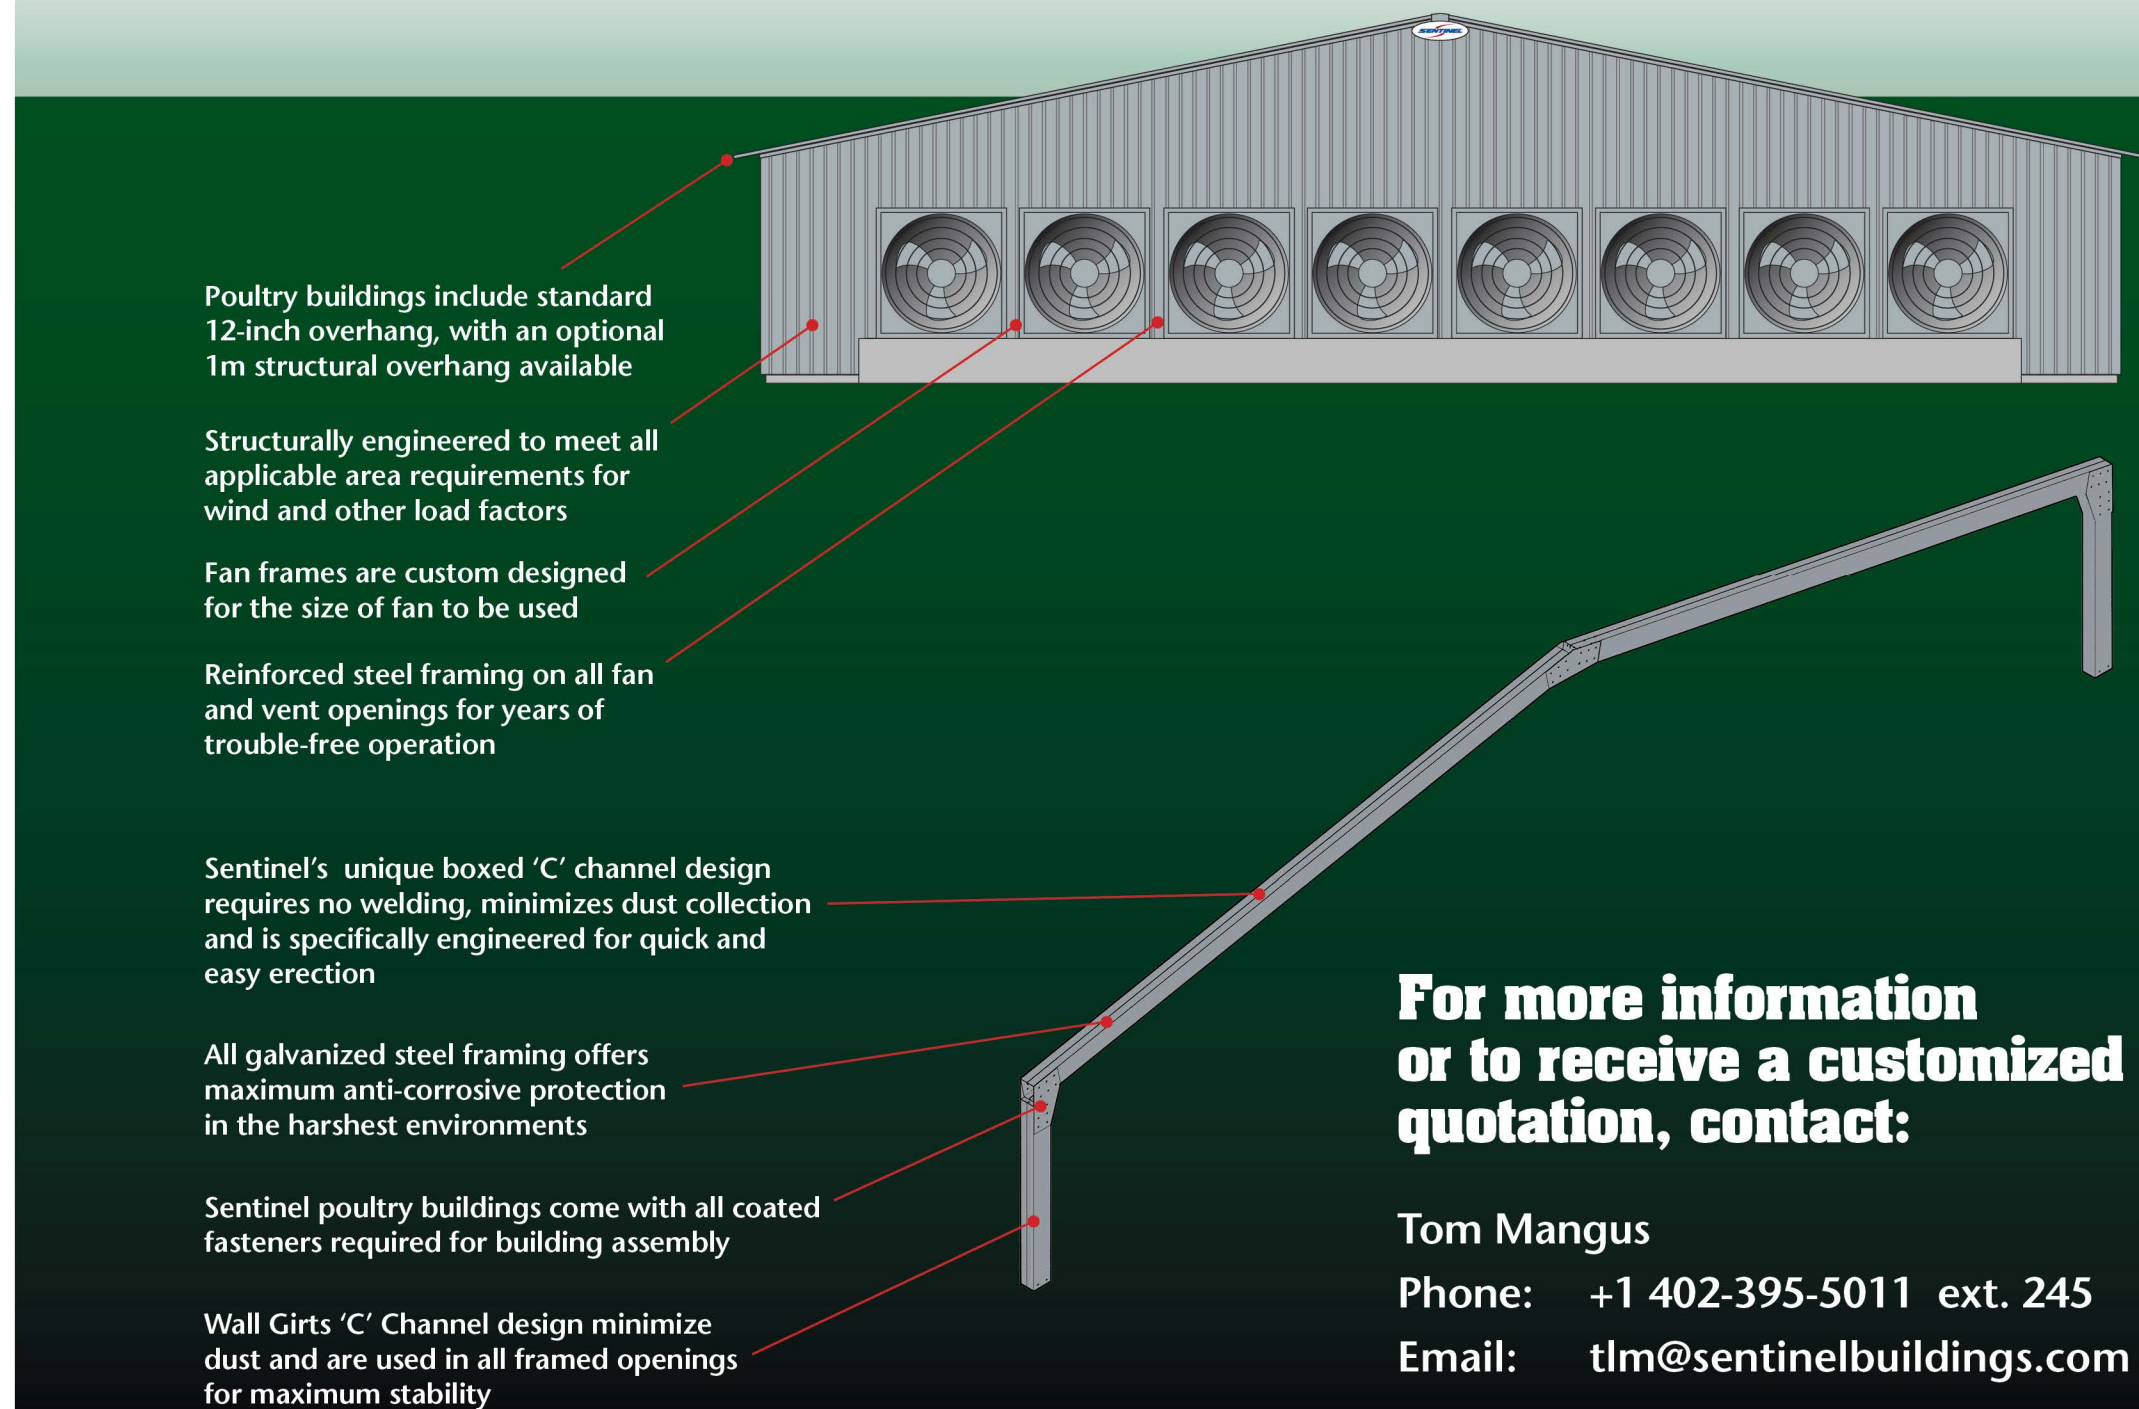

Optional control rooms can be customized to your specifications and fully integrated into your building design

Standard 2.75m high sidewalls including 40cm concrete stemwall

Poultry buildings can be ordered with either engineered openings for side curtains or with solid wall panels

Eave panel to accommodate minimum vents

Standard 5m bays

For more information or to receive a customized quotation, contact:

Tom Mangus

Phone: +1 402-395-5011 ext. 245

Email: tlm@sentinelbuildings.com